

Objectives of the organization

- To develop dynamic and systematic institution ,sensitive to indian ethos and
- is able to complete globally . It is expected that such institution would be
- able to accelerate the process of social change and national development.

- The institutin is having strong faith that is essential to provide career personality development and computer who are deep committed to humanistic and equalitarian social values having conversancy of the need of various organization, to faster creativity with deep sense of dynamism , targeted to accept the challenges of the most modern business ethos.